THE THEATRE. - Last night another fine audience greeted Mr. Sothern at his third appearance as "Lord Dundreary," and it is ardly necessary to say that he acquitted himself with the highest credif. To-night another rare bit of humor is promised in Dundreary's eccentric brother Sam." Secured seats can now be obtained at Ambold's for the Saturday matinee, when Mr. Sothern will again appear as "Lord Dundreary." The play for to-morrow night will be "Garrick," with a specially fine cast of characters.

LECTURES POSTPONED. - In consequence of the sickness of Mr. J. Mortimer Kilgour his lectures announced to be delivered before the Young Men's Christian Association on Thursday and Friday of this week are postponed. They will, however, be delivered. nounced.

[Communicated.]

To the Members of the Legislature, and Particularly to the Committee on Public Printing:

We have read the numerous articles it the Dispatch on the subject of printing the "bricis" or "statements" of cases to be tried in the Court of Appeals. As the Auditor has to pay the accounts for printing, it is unquestionably public work. The State has adopted the contract system. Now, let it carry out that system or abolish it. Under the contract system the printing can be done for one-balt charged under the old system, as a comparison of prices will show. Some printers allege that the price paid for the printing in question is low enough. Of course it is low enough, and doubtless too low, for their views. But we happen to know that there are other prin ers who will do the said printing for one-third less than is now paid for it. Then, why not allow them to do it, whether public or private work? Some printers are able and willing to work for much less than others; and each printer should be allowed the privilege of determining what he is able and willing to work for. The bids for public printing last April ranged from 20 to 60 cents per "thousand ems." I will only add that I know the briefs can be printed for one-third less than the prices now paid for Q. Z.

MANCHESTER ITEMS.

CITY POLITICS .-- It is now reported that the city judge to be elected will appoint no offier but clerk of the Hustings Court until after the Conservative nominations are made, and then to select from such as are the choice of the people. The excitement over the election of judge of the Hustings Court is unparalleled, both candidates having warm friends. Socrates Brooks, Esq., delegate from Chesterfield county, is authority for the statement that the term of the mayor of Manchester is for two and not four years. Neither Messrs. Brooks nor Friend, of the Chesterfield delegation, roted in the caucus for city judge.

Henry Fitzgerald, city superintendent, has called meetings for Friday night at 72 o'clock to send delegates to nominating convention, April 6th, as follows: First Ward, at Lincoln Hall, Second and Hull streets; Centre Ward, Council chamber, in rear of markethouse; Third Ward, Jones's Hall, Hull street between Twelith and Thirteenth; Fourth Ward, Cersley's Hall, Hull and Thirteenth streets. The First Ward will also elect a president and three members of the Central Committee, and a full attendance is desirable. Members of the City Central Committee from Centre Ward: N. A. Eubank, T. M. Fendley, and J. R. Perdue. There will be an important meeting of the Wide-A wakes to-night at headquarters.

FOR THE POOR .- Professor G. R. Harding will, at the request of the Relief Committee, exhibit his biorama at the county court house to-night, the gross proceeds to be dewoted to the relief of the poor.

CONTRACT AWARDED .- The contract for giving the tree bridge two coats of paint has been awarded to Arthur G. Evans, of this place, and the work was commenced yesterday.

SALE OF PROPERTY .- Messrs. Moody & Royall report the sale of a house and lot at Fourteenth and Perry streets to Henry J. Nunnally, Esq., for $1,150, and one adjoining to R. D. Luckett, Esq., for $1,100.
